

The Cost of Sports Injuries

Nobody likes to consider the possibility of suffering an injury when planning a sports holiday, but having an accident can prove costly while still abroad and even on your return home. Britons spend £55 million each year on medical bills due to sustaining sports injuries abroad. Avoid being one of them.

MEDICAL TREATMENT

£2,470

Is the average cost of medical treatment abroad<sup>1</sup>

REPATRIATION

£25k+

Is the average cost of repatriation<sup>2</sup>

GLOBAL COST OF HEALTH INSURANCE

£30.50

The cost of travel insurance if travelling outside of Europe<sup>3</sup>

£15.47

The cost of travel insurance if travelling within Europe<sup>3</sup>

PERSONAL FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

£4,850

Is the average loss of earnings per individual case<sup>1</sup>

We've got you covered.

Visit www.protectivity.com for adventure travel and sports injury insurance.

Sources: 1. Sports Cover Direct policy data, 2009-2013; 2. TravellMag article, 17th February 2005. 3. Based on a sample travel insurance quote at Protectivity.com for sports group 1 in zones 1 (Europe) and 2 (worldwide excluding USA and America). Correct as of January 2014.